Funerals/Memorial Services

Death is a difficult reality. It is filled with unspeakable grief and loss. We are honored to have the opportunity to offer you and your loved ones the comfort, love and peace of Christ in the midst of the pain that you are experiencing. We also count it a privilege to have the opportunity to celebrate with you the life and memory of your loved one. With your help, it is our desire to offer a service of celebration which is memorable and healing. Below you will find general information concerning the services we offer.
