RETREAT THEME

Embodied Spirituality: Healing our relationship with God and all of creation through contemplative prayer, experiential worship, and practical ritual.

Rev. Sari Brown

retreat leader

Rev. Sari Brown is a musician, minister, mother, sacred space facilitator, and ordained Elder in the United Methodist Church who works in the fertile gaps between cultures and perspectives. She is passionate about healing and nurturing our connections with each other, ourselves, the earth, and the Divine as we each understand it. She has lived and worked in Perú, Bolivia, Colombia, and Brazil, and brings her experience with Latin American cultures, cuisines, and languages to her work as a spiritual leader and artist. Sari holds a BA in Anthropology and Religion and received her M.Div from Candler School of Theology at Emory University.
